

STORY IDEAS

For the official observance of

STUDENT SAFETY MONTH • JUNE 2006

Officially recognized in Chase's Calendar of Events and Instructor Magazine

Carole Copeland Thomas, Founder and Organizer

(508) 947-5755 Email: Carole@TellCarole.com Website: www.TellCarole.com

---

---

1. A parents' "safe driving" plan for inexperienced teen drivers.
2. Getting to know your child: Building communication bridges between teens and adults
3. Straight talk about drugs and alcohol.
4. Characteristics of school related violence.
5. How to detect if your child is at risk.
6. How to detect if your friends are at risk.
7. Stay safe and have fun at your senior prom.
8. Even suburban kids can be at risk.
9. Peer pressure: How to survive it without being called a nerd.
10. Drinking and driving: the ultimate flirt with death.
11. Keeping young children safe.
12. What a community can do to minimize teen fatalities.
13. Media moments: How television and radio can make the big difference.
14. Kids leading kids in student safety.